

Workplace Health and Safety Policy

Workplace Training Centre is committed to ensuring the health, safety and welfare of all workers, contractors and visitors. In fulfilling this obligation Workplace Training Centre will consider the health and safety in all activities conducted at the workplace. To achieve this, Workplace Training Centre will:

- Develop and implement safe operating procedures to ensure that all risks to health and safety at the workplace are identified, assessed and eliminated or controlled.
- Consult with workers and implement agreed WHS consultative arrangements to improve the management of occupational health and safety.
- Communicate with government and community bodies on occupational health and safety issues.
- Provide safe systems of work to reduce accidents and incidents and the risk of injury to personnel.
- Comply with relevant work health and safety legislative requirements.
- Provide adequate information, instruction training and supervision to ensure that all workers and contractors can undertake their duties safely.
- Ensure that all visitors to the workplace are informed and instructed on site safety requirements and provided with adequate supervision and necessary protective equipment.

Management and workers will ensure that the objectives of this policy are implemented and integrated into day to day work practices.

All workers have a responsibility to take care for the health and safety of themselves and others and to comply with Workplace Training Centre work health and safety policy and supporting procedures.

Phil Middleton
Chief Executive Officer
Workplace Training Centre